

I believe that allowing only "professionals" to fully utilize digital video technology is wrong. This action will simply create a blackmarket for such technologies and force legitimate users to violate to procure methods to do what they can legitimately do today.

Thank you,
Shaun Drutar